Part Three – The Life of Muhammad

Read “Muhammad Begins to Preach” (Peeps pages 221 – 222) then create a flow chart that shows at least six important events from the life of Muhammad.

The image shows a flow chart template consisting of three rows and three columns of rectangular boxes. Each box contains four horizontal lines for writing. The boxes are connected by arrows pointing from left to right, indicating a sequence of events. The arrows are positioned between the boxes in each row, pointing from the first box to the second, and from the second box to the third.
